ADMINISTRATIVE:

The investigative period of this report includes the investigative period of all referenced reports of other field offices utilized in preparing this report.

The known membership lists reflected herein represent the accumulation of information obtained by NYO investigations and furnished by auxiliary offices pertinent to their respective territories. Additions and deletions are not explained herein, except in some instances where they pertain to the leadership, as it is assumed that all offices have advised of membership changes as they took place. These additions and deletions were brought about through deaths and additional informant coverage which identified previously unknown members and clarified the status of some. Also in many cases investigation has established the correct spelling of many names, thus accounting for those changes.

No sources are being set forth in the identification of suspected members, since in many cases, individuals are listed as suspected members, based on an accumulation of information regarding their activities and associates.

ADMINISTRATIVE CONTINUED:

This report is aimed at presenting the over-all picture of LCN membership and activities throughout the US and its environs. Pertinent information was obtained from referenced reports of auxiliary offices, and was correlated with information already in possession of NYO. No attempt was made to set forth any specific LCN activities in the gambling and shylocking fields, first because it is so widespread, and could not be adequately condensed for a report of this nature; and secondly, since it is widely known and accepted that LCN controls these activities to a great extent.

INFORMANTS:

It is to be noted that this report has utilized the T-symbols from referenced New York report of 10/20/67, to conceal the identities of sources NY T-1 through NY T-196. NY T-197 through NY T-238 are new T-symbols.

In order to further protect the identity of informants who have furnished voluminous information in this report, or in order to conform with reports received from auxiliary offices, multiple T-symbols have been assigned to the following informants:

LEADS:

Information copies of this report are being furnished to the designated offices to assist in the over-all coordination of this investigation, and to apprise them of the progress and extent of the Bureau's penetration of LCN.

ALL OFFICES

All offices should continue their efforts to develop additional informant coverage regarding LCN activities, in order to further identify members, and to enable greater penetration and disruption of their activities.

All offices, particularly those with a large active membership should make every attempt through the US Attorney to utilize the Federal Grand Jury as a disruptive weapon, together with the purpose of obtaining other results, such as prosecutions and a lever to use in informant development.

LEADS CONTINUED:

Further, in view of new legislation in the Extortionate Credit Transactions classification, this presents an additional means of disrupting LCN activities, and should lead to development of additional informants.

NEW YORK

AT NEW YORK, NEW YORK. 1. Will continue to coordinate the over-all LCN picture in the US, and set out leads for appropriate offices when necessary:

2. Will submit an up-to-date report when requested by the Bureau.

DETAILS:

EXISTENCE

1. "The Commission"

During the period of this investigation, and in the past, numerous informants have advised that the ruling body and ultimate authority of "La Cosa Nostra" (LCN) is the "Commissione" (Commission). The Commission consists of the following individuals:

Name	Area
VITO GENOVESE (Incarcerated)	New York, New York
CARLO GAMBINO	New York, New York
JOSEPH COLOMBO	New York, New York
STEFANO MAGADDINO	Buffalo, New York
JOSEPH ZERILLI	Detroit, Michigan
ANGELO BRUNO	Philadelphia, Pennsylvania

THOMAS LUCHESE of New York, New York, died on July 12, 1967, of a brain tumor. His replacement, as head of that "family", has not been verified by investigation, to date, as set out in the "Leadership Section" of this report. No information has been received to indicate that LUCHESE's position on the "Commission" has been filled.

JOSEPH BONANNO of New York and Tucson, Arizona, has been reported, by various sources, as attempting to retake his old position as "boss" of his "family", and may have succeeded. As reported previously, BONANNO was reportedly deposed from his position on the "Commission", as well as being demoted within, or expelled from, his "family". There is no indication that BONANNO, although he may have taken over his "family" again, has been placed back on the "Commission", his old position as "boss" of his "family". However after a violent, bloody, dispute within that "family", BONANNO and those close to him have left the New York City area, and several, including BONANNO have moved to Tucson, Arizona. PAUL SCIACCA, who was "consigliere" of this "family" under GASPARE DI GREGORIO, has been named "boss", with the approval of the "Commission". However, there has been no information received to indicate that SCIACCA holds a position on the "Commission".

SAM GIANCANA of Chicago, Illinois, was a member of the "Commission" for years. However, he was incarcerated for contempt of court from June 1, 1965 to May 31, 1966. Immediately upon his release, GIANCANA fled the country, and established residence in Mexico, where he continues to remain.

From May, 1967, until August, 1967, the Chicago "family" operated without any specific individual being designated "boss" or acting "boss". Several persons such as FELIX "MILWAUKEE PHIL" ALDERISIO, FIORE BUCCIERI, and JACK CERONE were considered as successors to this position, however, no official designation was made and these persons were apparently reluctant to assume this role, because of the "heat", which was apparently attached to this position. In August, 1967, Chicago sources reported that the official leadership of the Chicago "family" had been assumed on a temporary basis by ANTHONY JOSEPH ACCARDO and PAUL DE LUCIA, also known as PAUL RICCA, both of whom have acted in this capacity in the past and were as of August, 1967, considered to be in a retired status. NY T-204 and NY T-191 have advised in August, 1968, that ACCARDO and RICCA continue to share the leadership responsibilities for the LCN Chicago "family".

B. QUALIFICATIONS AND
ADMISSION TO MEMBERSHIP

On November 29, 1967, NY T-223 advised that proposed members of the LCN are not being made because the books are still closed. He believes the books are closed because the LCN knows the FBI has successfully infiltrated their ranks, and in addition has made informants out of some of the proposed members of the LCN.

Also the books have been closed due to problems which arose after the GALLO brothers were made wherein they caused an insurrection with the PROFACI crew causing the "mustachos" (old members) to hold off in making any younger men.

There seems to be a break down in the training procedure for LCN membership. To sources knowledge, FRANK COCCHIARO of the DE CAVALCANTE LCN "Family" is the only one actively training proposed members.

FRANK COCCHIARO has 7 men directly under his control being trained. This training program consists of "hit" assignments and other dirty jobs which bind the mob together testing each individual mob member's ability to stand up under pressure. One of the problems with the hoodlum element today is that there are too many "leisure" guys, those individuals who want the money from gambling and other activities, but who do not want to murder anyone.

Two of the individuals with FRANK COCCHIARO are CORKY VASTOLA and ROBERT DI BERNARDO. They, as well as the other COCCHIARO mob members, are from the Brooklyn, New York, area and regularly hang out at Satellite Wheel Alignment Company, a garage located in Brooklyn. There is no doubt that all of COCCHIARO's mob will be "made" by the DE CAVALCANTE LCN "Family" when the books are reopened.

COCCHIARO usually travels to Brooklyn, New York, on Monday of each week to meet with his mob, then they sometimes go to the Copacabana Night Club in Manhattan that night.

NY 92-2300

On July 15, 1968, NY T-1 advised that JOSEPH PATERNO in Newark, New Jersey, is also experiencing some difficulty "with the outfit". Apparently, "his boys" have been very active in various hijacking operations. Many of them are being arrested and the loads recovered. "The outfit" feels that PATERNO is not exercising sufficient control over his people. It was the source's opinion that PATERNO will receive a severe reprimand and instructed to resolve this situation.

NY T-121 advised in 1968 that recruitment for new LCN members was closed throughout the United States for security reasons by the ruling "Commissione" of LCN Bosses. He stated that because of continued pressure on LCN as a result of police and federal investigations, the "Commissione" decided it would be too great a risk to hold meetings for approval of recruits into LCN and too difficult to give them criminal assignments to test the worthiness or criminal potential of possible recruits. NY T-121 in 1968, expressed concern over the lack of "new blood" in the organization, and also expressed the dissatisfaction of many of the members or soldiers in the conservative and, in his opinion, even frightened leadership displayed by many of the Bosses. He believed that in many other areas of the country, or in the Los Angeles family, the leadership keeps any financially-profitable activity to themselves, instead of sharing it with the members. In addition, he pointed out that many of the old members are now in poor health and are physically incapable of sustained criminal activity. He stated they do not have "the stomach" or the talent for it.

On August 1, 1968, NY T-7 advised that the "books" for membership in the New York "families" of La Cosa Nostra (LCN) will be opened in October, 1968. Informant also expressed the belief that the "books" would be opened in all the "families" of LCN throughout the country at the same time.

Screening of candidates is now being conducted, according to informant, by the respective New York "families".

NY 92-2300

The SCIACCA "family" (formerly BONANNO-DI GREGORIO) anticipates increasing its membership by as many as fifty men.

NY T-176 advised on August 15, 1968, that he has continued to receive information that the "books" will be reopening, but just when he did not know. He said he understands the reason the books are being opened is because there are so many old timers dying.

NY 92-2300

D. TRANSFERS OF MEMBERS

ALANDENA T. FRATIANNO of Sacramento, California, has been identified as a member of the Los Angeles "family" of LCN by NY T-121 and NY T-15.

On June 12, 1968, NY T-121 advised that FRATIANNO's LCN status was uncertain. Informant stated that several years ago, JOHN ROSELLI, LCN, Los Angeles, reportedly had arranged with SAM GIANCANA, LCN, Chicago, to be transferred from the Los Angeles "family" to the Chicago "family". This transfer was reportedly approved by the Los Angeles "boss", FRANK DESIMONE, but apparently DESIMONE died, without informing "underboss" NICOLO LICATA of the transfer. [REDACTED]

b7D

NY T-154 advised on August 8 and 20, 1968, that CHARLES BATTAGLIA was a former LCN member of the Los Angeles "family". Informant claimed that BATTAGLIA did not get along well with FRANK DESIMONE, and that BATTAGLIA had his LCN membership transferred to the JOSEPH BONANNO "family". [REDACTED]

b6

[REDACTED]
but to the informant's knowledge, the entire BONANNO "family" is still expelled from LCN until they resolve the problem of what to do with JOE BONANNO, as he is not acceptable to the "Commission".

(formerly DI GREGORIO "family")

Leadership

As previously reported, after the alleged abduction of JOSEPH BONANNO from a New York City street on October 21, 1964, the leadership and loyalties of BONANNO's "family" fluctuated considerably. During 1965, sources advised that GASPARE DI GREGORIO had taken over as "boss" in place of BONANNO. However, due to illness and ineffectual leadership, DI GREGORIO had to be replaced as "boss". The "family" continued to be split into two factions, one loyal to BONANNO and one loyal to the DI GREGORIO side.

After BONANNO's surrender to United States District Court (USDC), SDNY May 17, 1966, in answer to an indictment on a charge of Obstruction of Justice, BONANNO began to make a move to regain the "family" leadership. This effort was engineered with the close assistance of his son, SALVATORE VINCENT BONANNO, also known as "Bill", who surrounded himself with a small number of loyal followers, and negotiated with the higher echelon members of the "family" for a settlement with the DI GREGORIO faction. According to sources, those most strongly opposed to BONANNO's reinstatement were those closest to DI GREGORIO, namely PAUL SCIACCA ("consiglieri") FRANK MARI, [REDACTED] and MIKE ADAMO. MARI and ADAMO were "Capodecinas" under DI GREGORIO.

Four important persons were "on the fence", meaning that they had not definitely shown their loyalties to either faction, and were involved in some degree of negotiation with both sides. They were all "Capodecinas" or higher, namely JOSEPH ARTHUR ZICARELLI, ANGELO CARUSO, THOMAS "SMITTY" DIANGELO and MICHAEL JOSEPH CONSOLO. For many months, sources reported attempts, particularly by the BONANNO faction, to win their support, either by persuasion or threats.

NY 92-2300

On October 31, 1967, NY T-7 advised that the "Commission" had given its official approval to the elevation of PAUL SCIACCA as "Boss" of the "family" and FRANK MARI, also known as "Frankie T" as "Underboss".

As previously reported, a gangwar had been in progress between the BONANNO and DI GREGORIO factions, which involved an attempt on the life of BILL BONANNO, and an attempt on the life of FRANK MARI. On November 10, 1967, while seated at the Cypress Gardens Restaurant, Queens, New York, THOMAS D'ANGELO, his brother, JAMES D'ANGELO, and a well known policy operator, FRANK TELLERI, were machine gunned to death by an unidentified assassin. Ballistics examinations revealed that the bullets were fired from the same weapon which had been used in the attempt on FRANK MARI, on July 13, 1966.

It is noted that in August, 1967, NY T-7 had advised that THOMAS D'ANGELO was being considered for a rank in the reorganized "family". On November 14, 1967, NYCPD received information that D'ANGELO had been promoted to position of "Consiglieri" a few weeks prior to his death.

Investigation to date has failed to identify the above killer or his cohorts, but a consensus of informant information unquestionably included BILL and JOE BONANNO, , PETER NOTARO, PETER J. MAGADDINO and SAM "HANK" PERRONE in the conspiracy. Information was also received that D'ANGELO's

On March 11, 1968, SAM PERRONE was shot and killed in gangland fashion in the vicinity of his employment in Brooklyn, New York. The killers again have not been identified, but on May 16, 1968, NY T-7 advised that killer was reliably identified as [REDACTED] for FRANK MARI.

On April 1, 1968, MICHAEL JOSEPH CONSOLO was shot and killed in the vicinity of his residence, Queens, New York, again by unknown assailants. Conflicting information has been received as to CONSOLO's loyalties in the "family" split.

On April 5, 1968, [REDACTED] a close associate of VITO DE FILIPPO and BILL BONANNO, was shot and wounded while parking his car in front of his apartment in Bronx, New York. Investigation indicates that [REDACTED] may have been with VITO DE FILIPPO, [REDACTED] at the time of this shooting, and he may not have been the prime target. While [REDACTED] was in the hospital, the above three apparently have gone into hiding, both for personal safety, and to avoid local grand juries investigating the shootings.

b7C

It was at approximately this same time that JOSEPH and BILL BONANNO, PETER J. MAGADDINO and PETER J. NOTARO went to Tucson, Arizona, and have made Tucson relatively permanent residences, according to NY T-12 and other sources. BILL BONANNO is reportedly intending to settle in San Jose, California. [REDACTED] has also disappeared, and apparently gone into hiding, as has ANGELO CARUSO.

NY 92-2300

The above exodus appears to have left this "family" to the control of PAUL SCIACCA, however, the violence does not seem to have ended. On May 23, 1968, NY T-7 advised that VITO GENOVESE had issued orders to terminate the gangland slayings until he was released from prison. The informant said that GENOVESE had instructed BONANNO to keep himself and his son, as well as certain potential trouble makers, out of the New York area, and to remain out west until the dispute is settled.

On April 16, 1968, [redacted] was wounded by gun shot, when he was seated in the Rossini Democratic Club, Brooklyn, which is owned by [redacted] an elder "Capodecina" in the "family". [redacted] is not known to be an LCN Member. Investigation indicated that when SAM "HANK" PERRONE was slain, a key found on his person was traced to a garage where a stolen auto was stored. The garage was being rented at the time [redacted]. During the period of these shootings, stolen cars were widely used, after having been stolen and stored for as long as several months.

On May 2, 1968, an unsuccessful shooting attempt was made on [redacted] while in a car near his residence in Brooklyn. [redacted] while not considered an LCN Member, was an associate and former employee of the late FRANK LA BRUZZO. LA BRUZZO, the brother-in-law of JOE BONANNO, was a "Capodecina", and "acting boss" prior to his death in 1966.

Since BONANNO's arrival in Tucson, a bombing took place in the backyard of his residence there, in July, 1968. A subsequent bombing took place in the new residence of PETER NOTARO in Tucson, destroying several rooms in August, 1968.

b7c

NY T-12 advised on August 27, 1968, that confusion and suspicion reign among the LCN members in Tucson loyal to BONANNO. He advised that there are definite signs that PAUL SCIACCA was sending men out from New York to "hit" JOE and BILL BONANNO. One of these was [redacted] a close associate of SCIACCA [redacted]

NY 92-2300

On August 8 and August 20, 1968, NY T-121 advised that to his knowledge the entire BONANNO "family" is still expelled from LCN, until they resolve the problem of what to do with JOE BONANNO, as he is not acceptable to the "Commission".

In light of the foregoing, the following is considered to be the leadership of the SCIACCA "family". In the absence of concrete information linking them with BONANNO, all the listed "Capodecinas" are considered to be loyal to SCIACCA.

Leadership

NY T-12, NY T-168 and other sources have advised that there is no formal organization as such of the LCN in Arizona. These informants further advise that the LCN members in Arizona continue to be concentrated in the Tucson, Arizona area and are considered to be members of the JOSEPH BONANNO "family" of LCN.

It is to be noted that BONANNO continues to maintain a residence at 1847 East Elm Street in Tucson.

NY T-12 and T-168 have consistently furnished information indicating that the LCN has no formal organization in Arizona. These informants advise, however, that the members in Arizona are considered as being part of the JOSEPH BONANNO "family" of LCN. It is to be noted that BONANNO has been residing almost continually at his Tucson residence for the past several months. He is, however, maintaining himself in almost complete seclusion and is presently at home recuperating from an alleged heart attack which he suffered on June 5, 1968. This attack occurred just prior to an appearance he was scheduled to make before a Grand Jury in New York City. BONANNO has also made it known that he desires no contact with local LCN members and he obviously has considerable trepidations concerning his personal safety, especially following an explosion which occurred in the back yard of his residence on July 22, 1968, which blew out a portion of a brick wall surrounding his back yard. In addition, BONANNO is constantly guarded by his bodyguard, PETER MAGADDINO.

Concerning current leadership of the LCN in Arizona, it is to be noted that CHARLES JOSEPH BATTAGLIA, JR., who previously served as BONANNO's titular representative in Arizona is now confined in the federal prison at Leavenworth, Kansas, where he is serving a ten-year sentence for violation of the Hobbs Act. Since BATTAGLIA's imprisonment, BONANNO's older son, SALVATORE VINCENT BONANNO, has been spending most of his time in Tucson and is obviously serving as his father's spokesman. Informants have advised that SALVATORE, commonly known as BILL, is definitely not viewed with respect by the local LCN members; and, therefore, various instances of dissension have arisen resulting from members either ignoring BILL or refusing to accept any orders from him.

On October 23, 1967, Detective [REDACTED] Cherry Hill, New Jersey Police Department, advised he had just received the following from a confidential source: b6 b7C

At 12:30 AM October 15, 1967, ANGELO BRUNO, of Philadelphia, and three associates met with JOE BONANNO, of New York, who also had three associates, in the dining room of the Cherry Hill Inn, Route 38, Cherry Hill, New Jersey. BRUNO and BONANNO sat at a table with their backs to the wall. The six unknown subjects associates stood at the entrances in a manner that looked "like an old time movie", giving the impression of being body guards and probably were because of the bulges in their coat pockets. BRUNO and BONANNO talked about cigarettes, but no specific information could be overheard. All left about 1:30 AM.
